Nothing Happens Until A Sale Is Made

A lack of sales is the number one reason businesses close. Sadly, business owners are often ineffective salespeople and sales managers.

Until they meet Laura Posey.

"Firecracker" is the word most used to describe Laura Posey. Her blend of humor, blatant honesty and passion for profit makes her one of the most dynamic speakers you'll book this year. As a past top sales and management performer for a Fortune 100 company and owner of four successful small businesses, Laura knows sales.

Here's what you get when you book Laura:

- Guaranteed sales results for your audience
- Focused and motivated audience members
- Follow up with the audience after the event for maximum retention
- Huge numbers of "thank you!" for you

Whether learning "How to Plan An Entire Year In 20 Minutes" or "Effective Marketing for Insanely Busy Business Owners" your audience will walk away from their time with Laura knowing exactly what their next step is to double their sales and profitability.

Your audience will be motivated, focused and driving more sales than they ever thought possible. And when they win, you do, too.

"Thank you for the information and your willingness to share it. You were a fantastic speaker! You provided a great deal of important information in a short period of time. Excellent!"
